

Kingbridge Centre

Knowledge Quest

Kingbridge is truly a unique property with many amazing things to discover. Explore our centre, find the answers to the following questions and capture great moments with your colleagues. Good Luck!

SOUTH WING

- Find the phrenology head replication from Frans Galls and take a picture.
- What is the Library dedicated to illustrating?
- What is the Grunion and where is a model of this?
- What date did King Ranch introduce the Art & Science of Wellness to Canada?
- Take a group selfie with the castle in the clouds.
- What is the name of one of our Woodland trails?
- Where at Kingbridge is the Tower of Babel?
- What is the Klein bottle?
- Take a group selfie with the Klein bottle.
- In the Kingbridge Collection who drew the black and white drawings?
- Take a group selfie with the largest book on property.

- Where on property exists a collection of coins from 2000BC?
- What is the Water of Integrities at Kingbridge?
- Find the medical devices case in the library. What objects are here?

NORTH WING

- Take a group selfie in the indoor pool area.
- One member must take a video of another member running around the indoor track.
- Take a picture of team members using a piece of gym equipment.
- Take a group selfie with the Elephant standing on a ball.
- According to the population map, which country has the most people?
- What is your favorite change that innovation has brought?
- Fill in the blank; Wisdom vs. _____ of crowds.

OUTDOOR AREA

Take a group selfie on one of our five exterior bridges.

What river runs through the Kingbridge Centre property?

Kingbridge is much more than just a venue. This is a place for true engagement to unfold during meetings or social events. We designed a special place for curious individuals and organizations to gather to explore ideas, inspire innovation and gain insight into the powers of human potential.